

988 AND CRISIS RESPONSE POLICY HIGHLIGHTS AND EXAMPLE LEGISLATION

988 Fee

STATES WITH A 988 FEE

	988 Fee Amount	Estimated Annual Revenue [†] (in Millions)	Total Amount Received [‡] (in Millions)	Effective Date (on or after)
 California	$0.08-$0.30 per line per month	$55.6	$44.3	$0.08 charge reconfirmed in 2025
 Colorado	Capped at $0.30 per line per month	$12.7	$23.8	$0.18 charge began Jan. 1, 2022
 Delaware	$0.60 per line per month	$9.4	data not available	Jan. 16, 2024
 Illinois*	1.65% of total monthly bill	$49	data not available	July 1, 2025
 Maryland	$0.25 per line per month	$27	data not available	Oct. 1, 2024
 Minnesota	$0.12 per line per month	$9.8	data not available	Sept. 1, 2024
 Nevada	$0.35 per line per month	$13.3	$7.9	Jan. 20, 2023
 New Mexico*	1.3% of total monthly bill on intrastate telephone services	$3.6	data not available	July 1, 2025
 Oregon	$0.40 per line per month	$32.9	data not available	Jan. 1, 2024 (sunsets Jan. 1, 2030)
 Vermont	A portion of $0.72 per line per month	$1	data not available	July 1, 2025
 Virginia	$0.12 per line per month	$10	$11.3	July 1, 2021
 Washington	$0.40 per line per month	$46	$27.9	Jan. 1, 2023
Total Estimated Annual Revenue (in Millions)		$270.3

[†] Estimated annual revenue figures are pulled from state fiscal notes/legislative analysis documents of enacted fee legislation.

[‡] Total amount received reflects actual 988 fee revenue as reported by the state to the FCC in their most recent 988 Fee Report from Oct. 17, 2023. Note: several states had not yet started 988 fee collection in 2023, thus their data is not available.

* Illinois and New Mexico passed 988 fee legislation in 2025.